Camp is located at Camp Balboa on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday; Wednesday is at Camp Fiesta Island. This camp has been specifically designed to meet the needs of new Boy Scouts. Every activity planned for the week is meant to give him a great introduction to the Boy Scout Camping Program and also a head start towards advancement. All of the Program Activities are focused on the "Trail to First Class". Your Scout will earn the Leatherwork Merit Badge and may receive partial credit towards the Swimming, Pioneering, and First Aid Merit Badges. A record of all Rank achievements earned will be sent home on Thursday with each Scout for him to give to his Scout Leader to signoff in his book.

Parents! Scout Leaders! Are you enthusiastic, caring and have a sense of adventure? We need you... one day or all four. Boy Scouts, Venture and Varsity Scouts age 14 and older may also serve as Patrol Guides & Station Assistants and earn service hours towards their next rank and for community service.
